Instructions Your family trip is next month. Get into pairs. Ask your partner about one country on the board, e.g., "Are you going to Brazil?" Your partner tries to throw a coin onto the matching space. If successful, your partner answers, "Yes, we are" and writes his / her name in the space. If not, your partner answers, "No, we're not" and nobody gets the space. Then change roles. The first student with four squares in a row takes the first turn in the next game.
